New Applicants: Adherence to the following is required to receive consideration for CTST sanctioning. Please note that events shall become CTST sanctioned members only if accepted and acknowledged by the CTST managing committee.

1. Applicants shall complete this form providing the proposed event name, dates, location, and event owners/directors as requested above and mail the form to the address provided below at least three (3) months prior to the proposed event dates.
2. Applicants shall include a $50 application fee along with this completed form. The application fee shall be applied to annual membership dues if the proposed event is approved. If approved, the applicant will then remit the balance of the $150 annual dues (an additional $100).
3. By submitting this application the event owner(s) stipulate the proposed event:
 - Shall be at least two (2) days in duration with one (1) of the days being a Saturday or Sunday
 - Shall be held in an appropriate facility as described in the currently published Rules.
 - Shall offer a minimum of two (2) of the four (4) sanctioned “core” contest divisions (Novice, Intermediate, Advanced and All Stars).
 - Shall follow all currently published rules, contest format guidelines, registration procedures and scoring procedures published by the CTST.
4. Applicants are encouraged to submit any additional information deemed significant (names of contest staff personnel, host venue information, etc.) to augment or enhance this application.
5. As a general rule, applicants shall refrain from proposing a new event within four (4) weeks and within 300 miles of another CTST sanctioned dance event. Occasionally, exceptions may be made; refer to the CTST rules for details.

Membership Renewals: If renewing an event that was sanctioned in the previous year, please complete this form and mail it with your $150 annual dues to the address below. Ongoing events must continue to comply with paragraphs 3 and 4 above.

If you have additional questions or concerns, please contact Randy Shotts by email at info@countrytwosteptour.com or by telephone at 503-330-0976.
